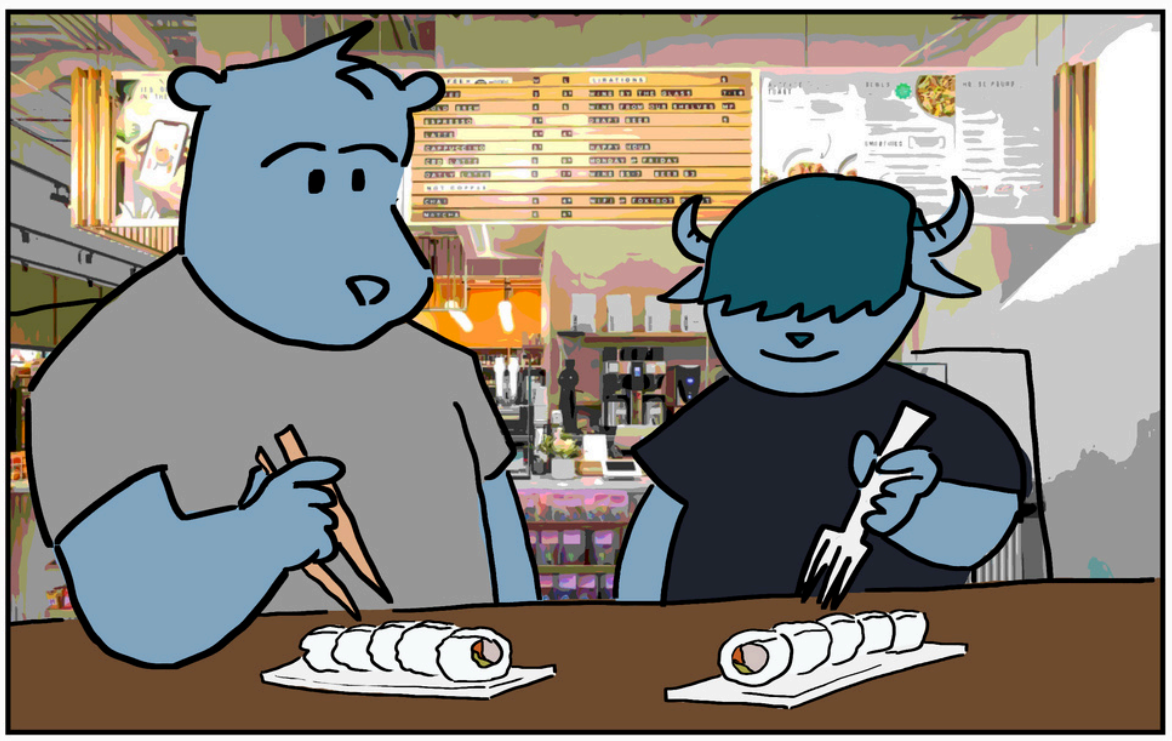
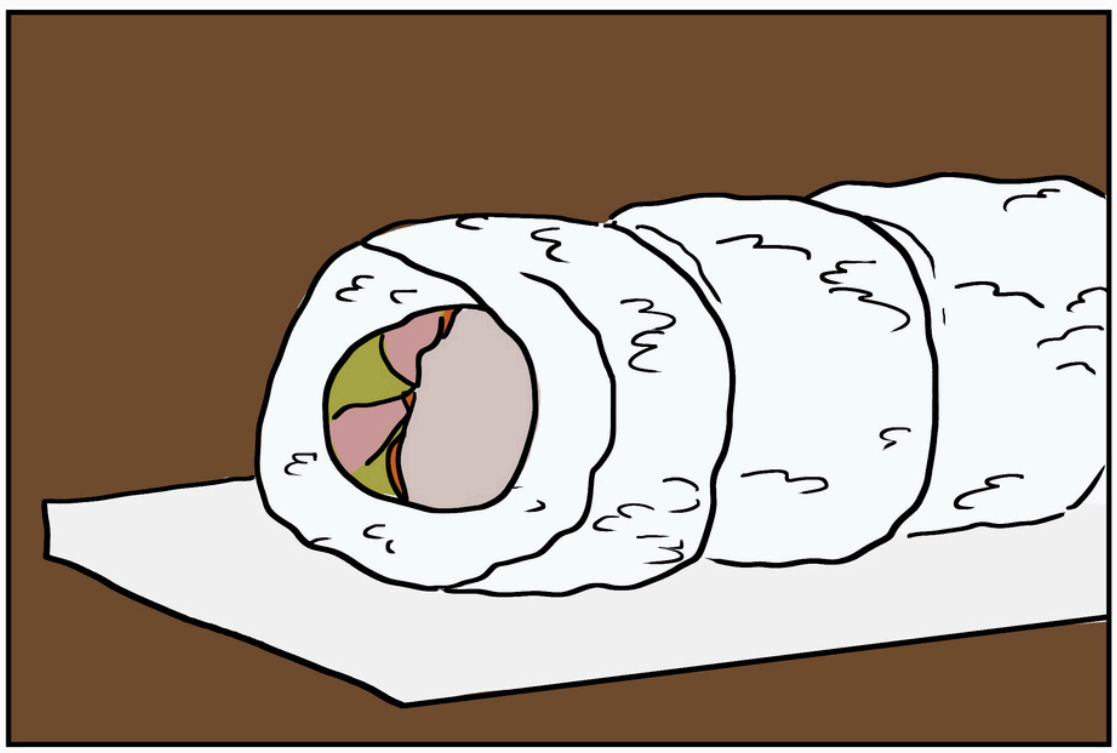
ゴジラ寿司

The Godzilla Roll

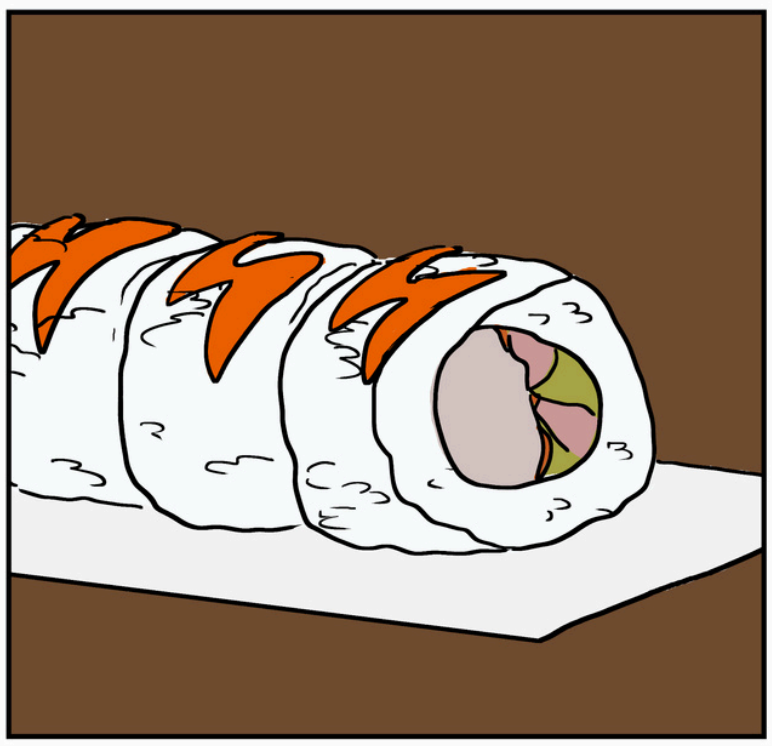
Me and My Dad love sushi. we love it!



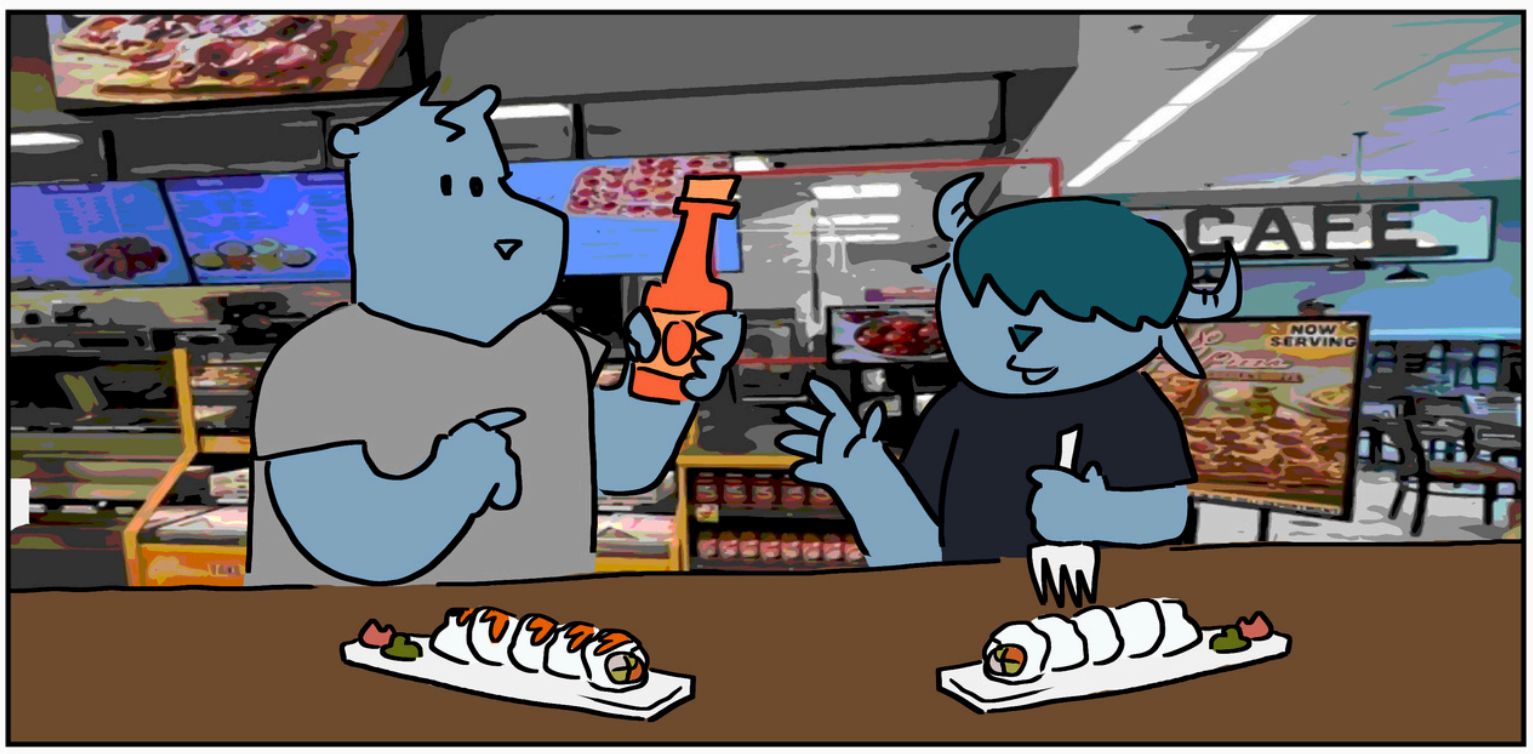
I enjoy California Rolls.

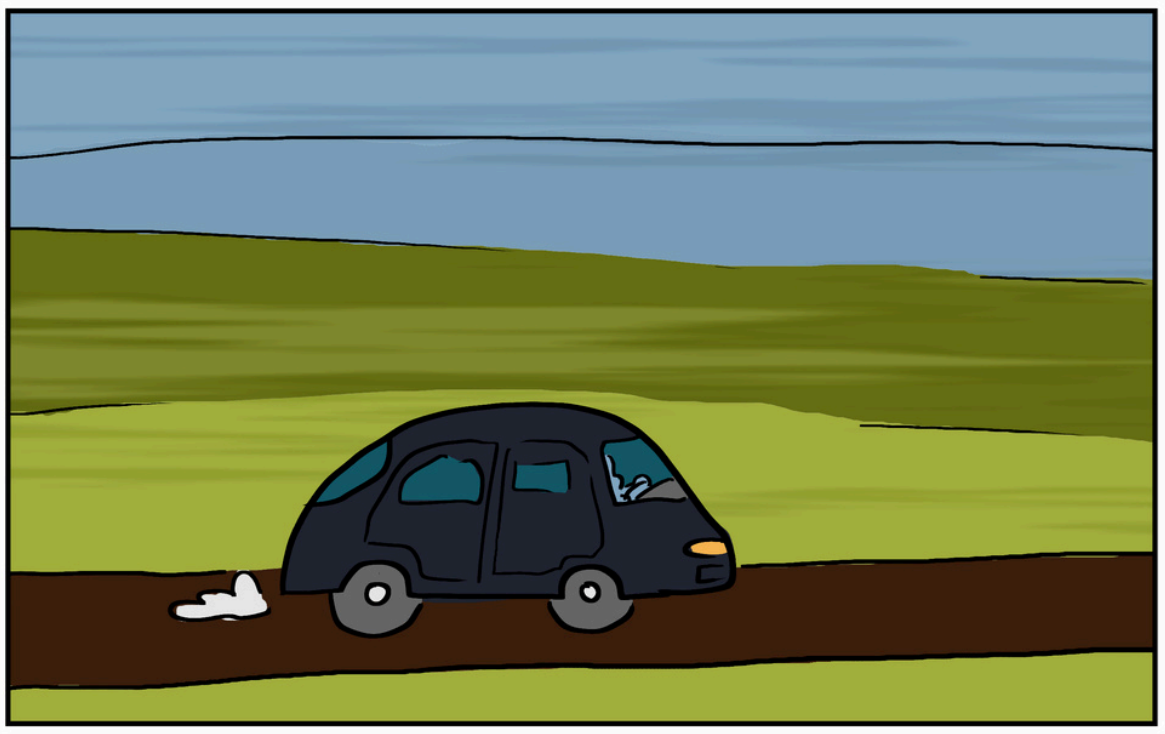


My Dad Likes Salmon Rolls.



I don't like my sushi spicy, but my Dad does like his sushi spicy. But not too spicy.



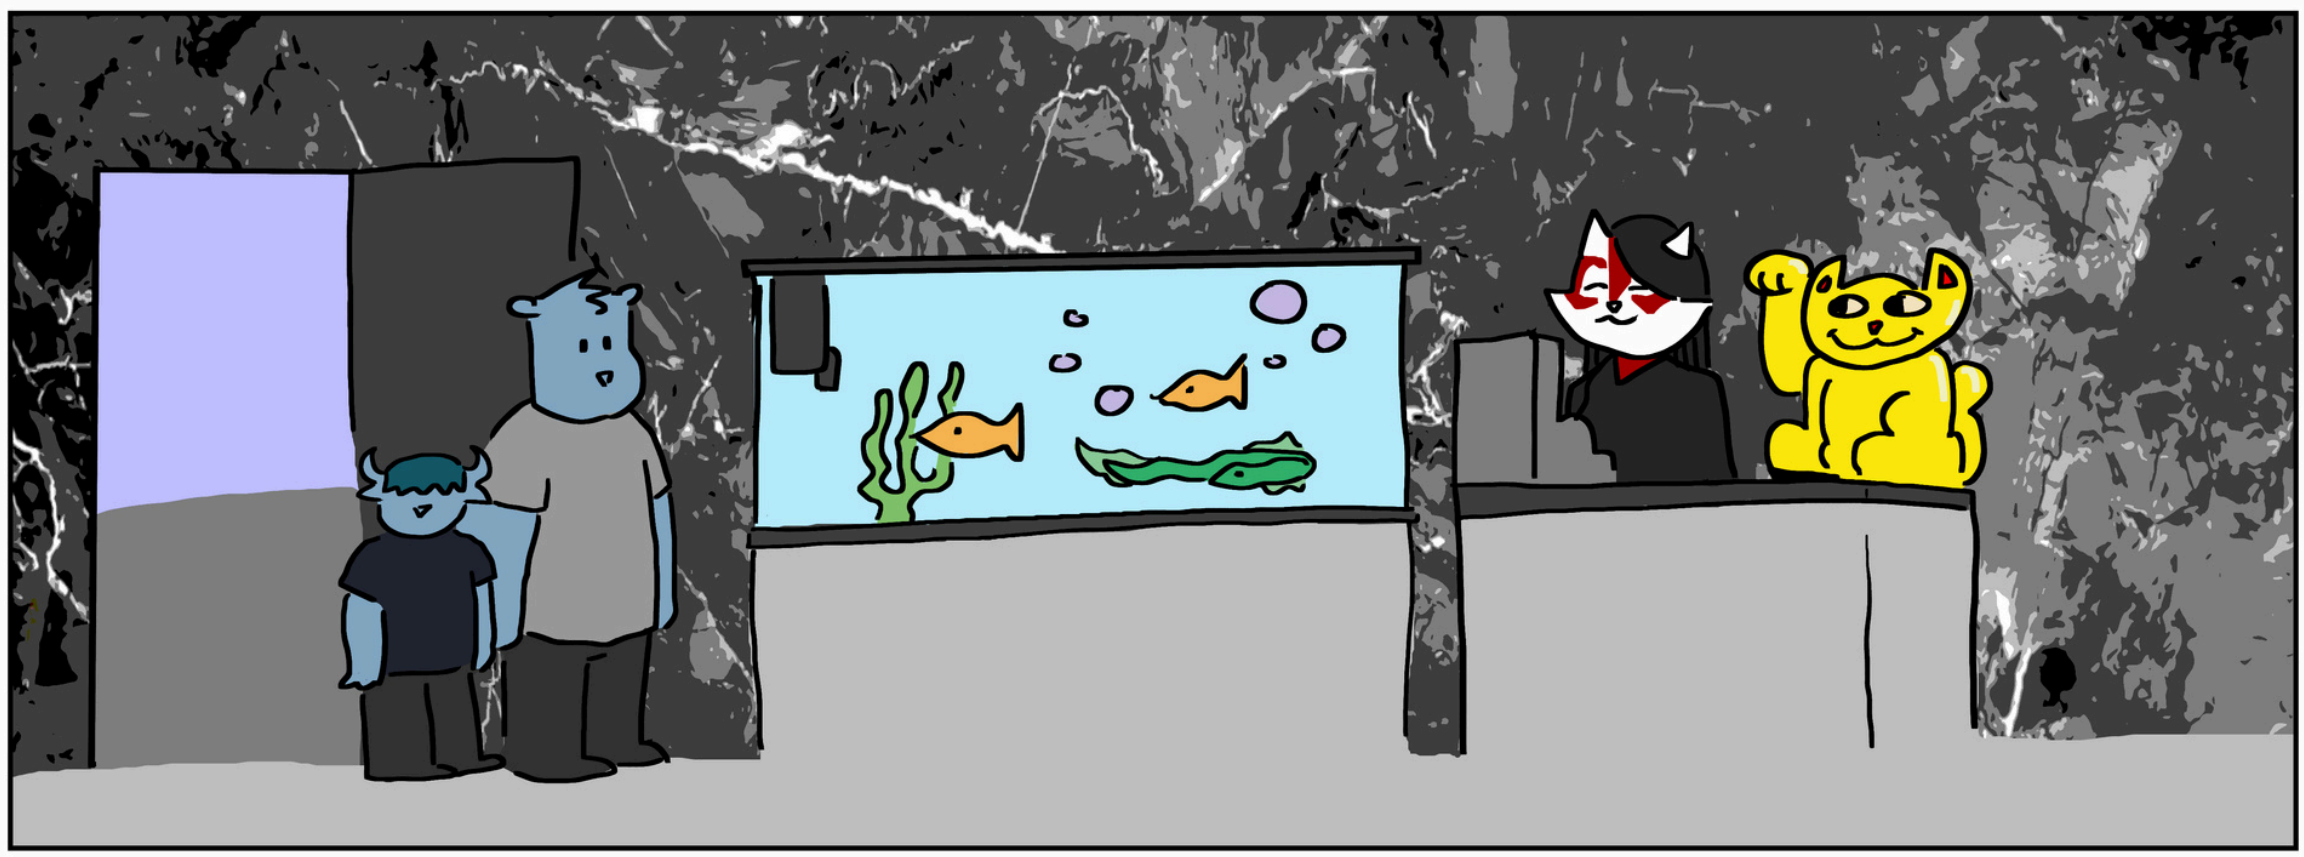


we also go on Road Trips a lot.

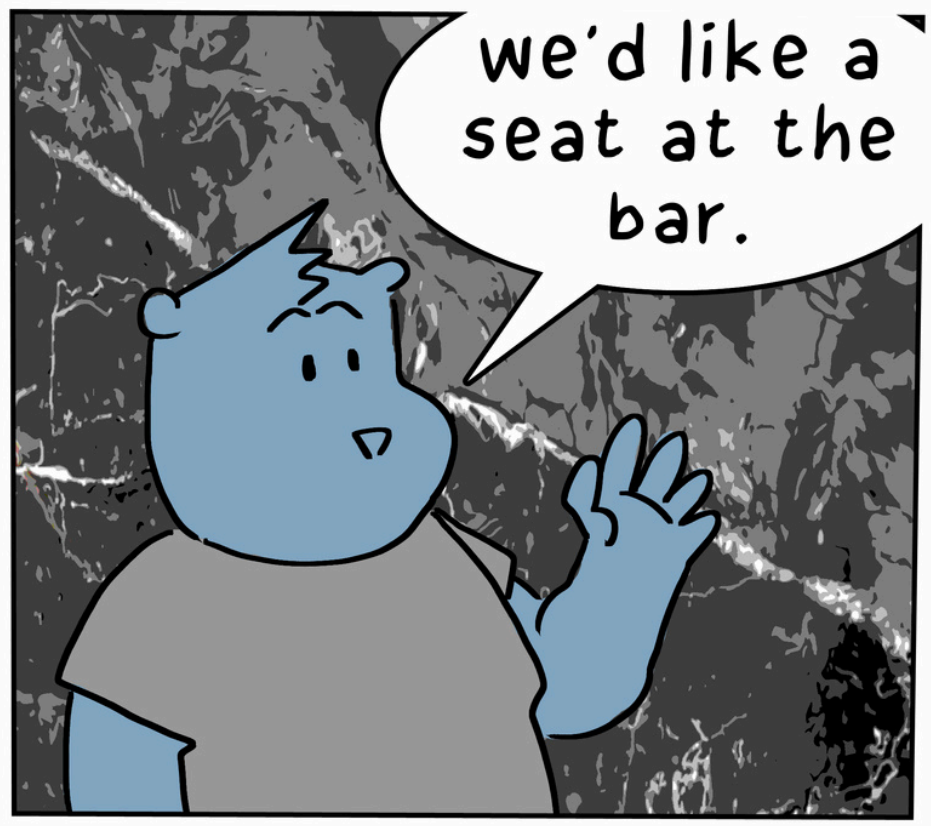
Did you get that? Good. Because if you didn't get that... this story won't make much sense.

One Day my Dad and I are on a road trip. It's Noon and we are getting hungry.

I use my eagle-eye vision and spot a sushi restraunt in seconds.



we park the car and walk in. The first thing we see is a fish tank. A waitress waits at the front counter and one of those golden cats wiht the paw that moves up and down sit at the front too.



we sit at the bar and are given menus. water trickles in the background. Everything looked expensive.

On the menu I see a sushi Roll titled The Godzilla Roll. I love Godzilla.

Tuna, Salmon, Yellowtail, Eel, Shrimp, or Crab, Avocado, Cucumber, and Rice, Spicy mayo, Teriyaki aioli and Tempura.

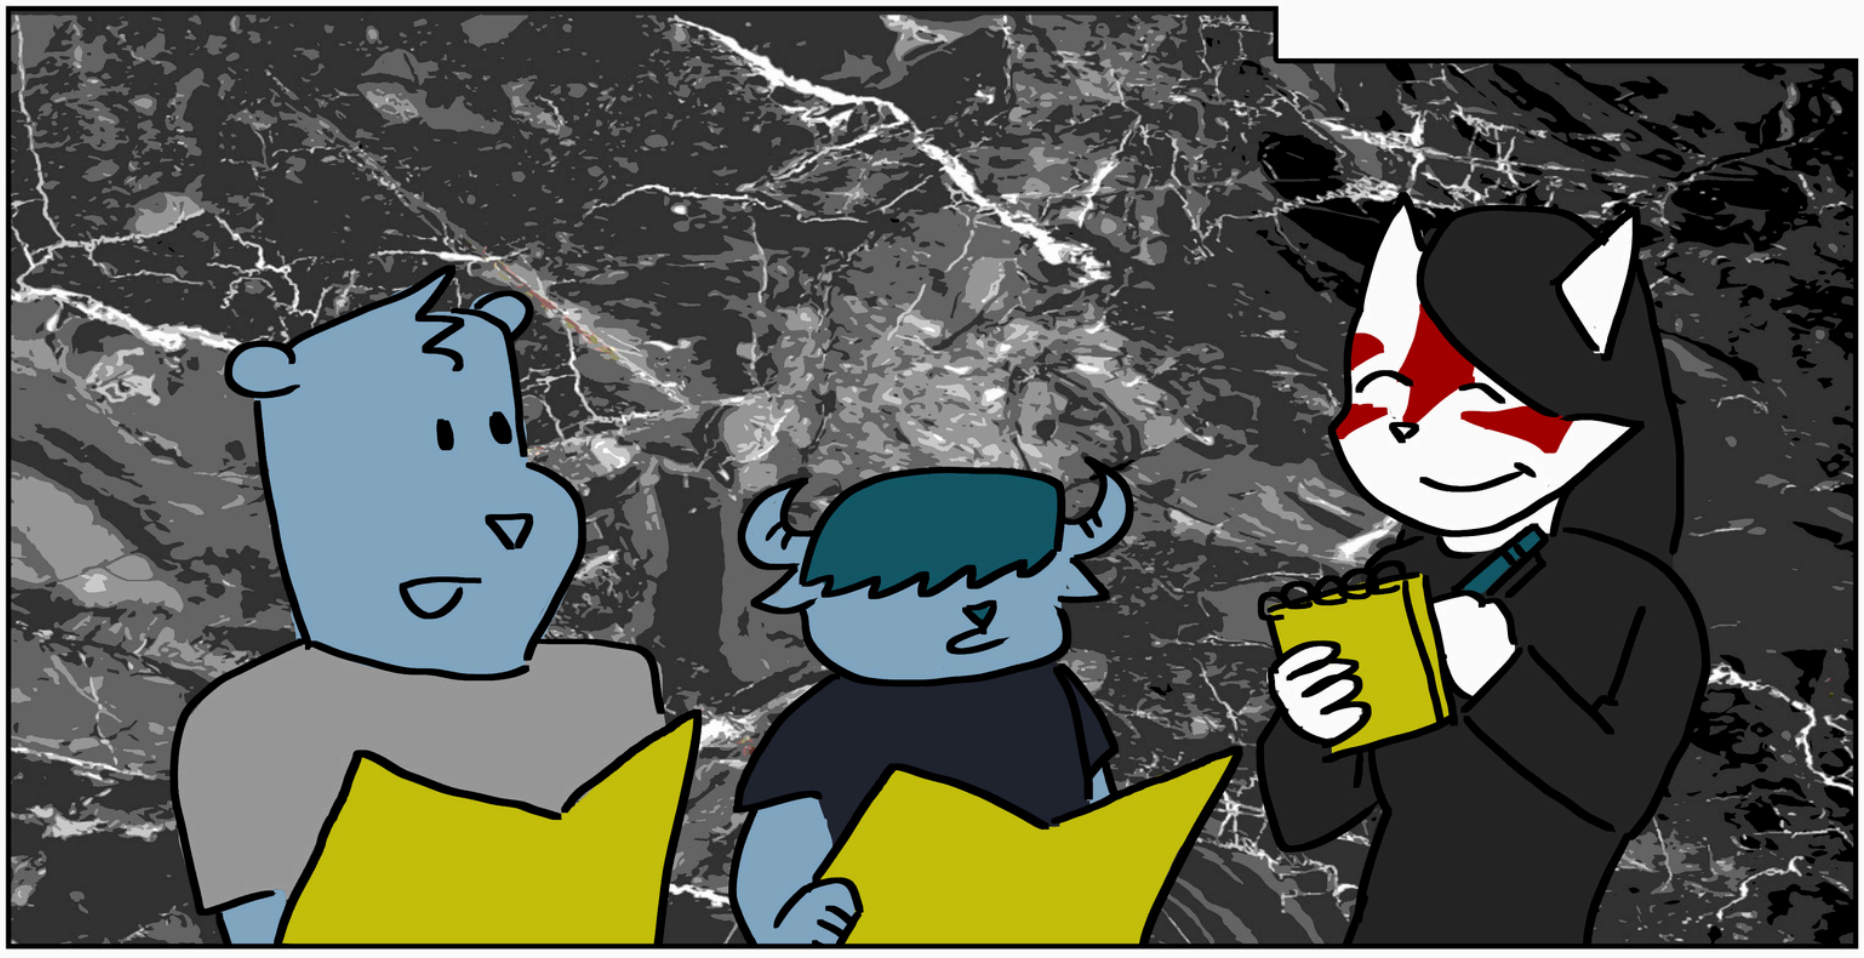
Godzilla Roll

Shrimp tempura, Cream cheese, Krab salad, Eel, Roe and Chef's Special Sauce

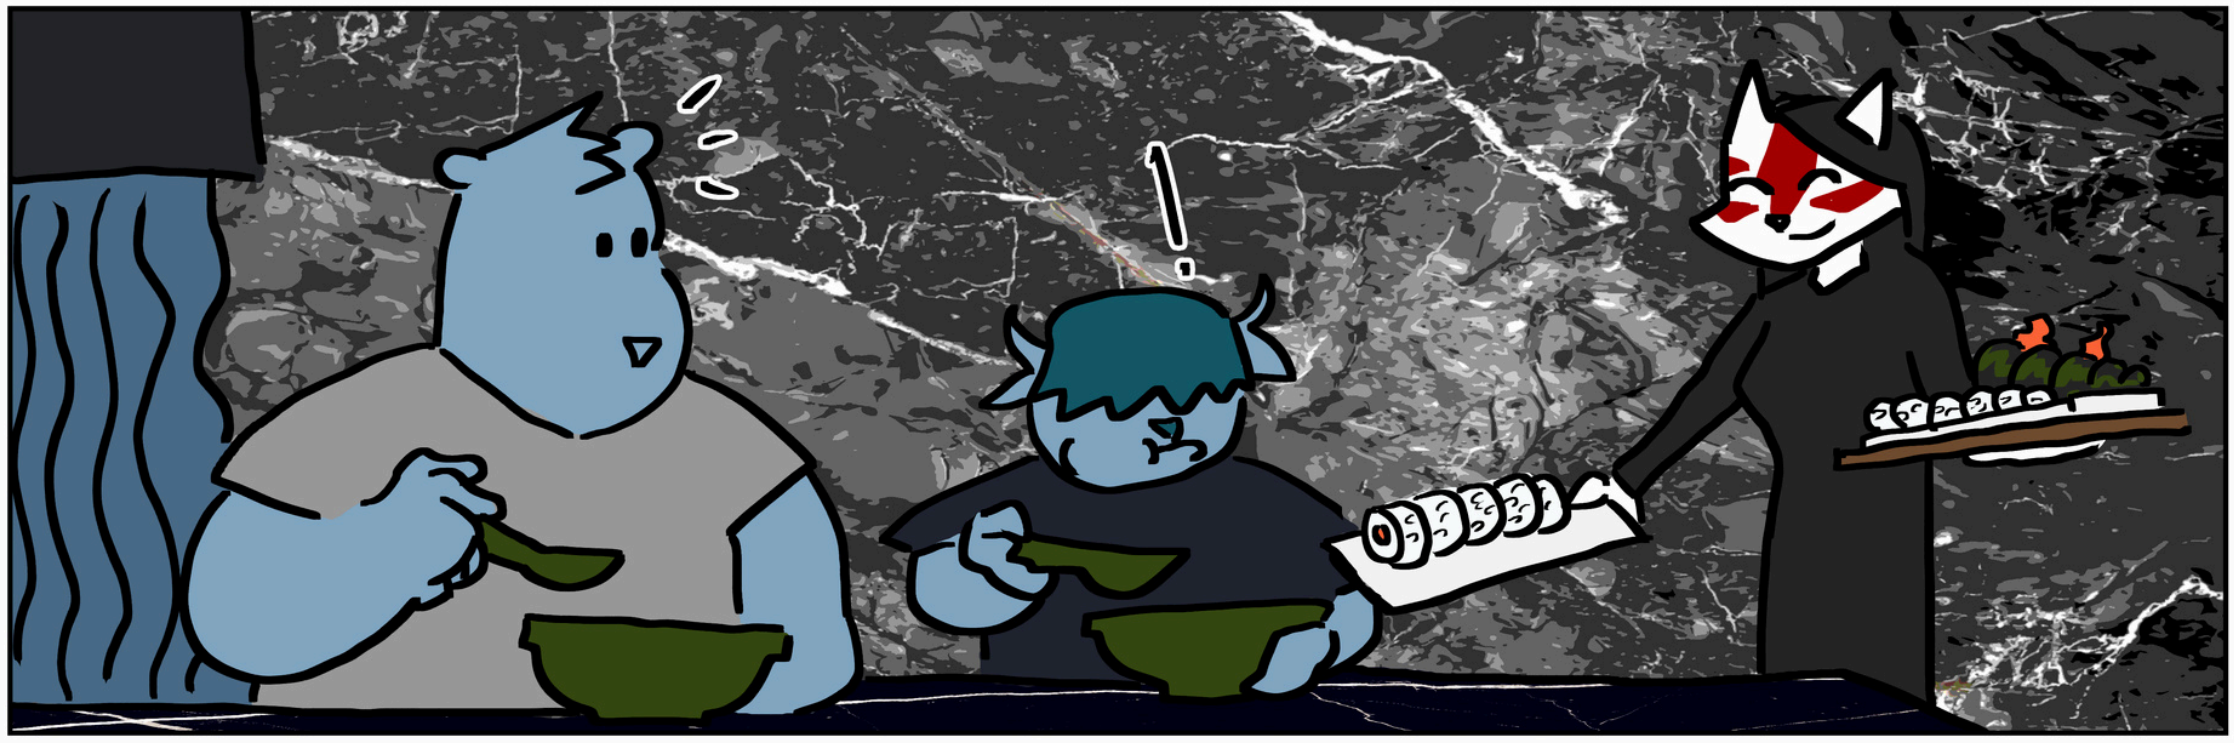
Volcano Roll

Shrimp tempura, Spicy crab, Scallops, Cream

Nothing here says it's spicy.



So we Order:
2 Miso Soups
One california
One Spicy California
One Spicy Salmon
And one Godzilla Roll.



we have our miso soup and our rolls arrive.

My dad starts digging into his rolls and I plop a Godzilla roll into my mouth.

wild fire spreads through my mouth and it feels like my taste buds are litten up with firecracke rs. I sit paralyzed and my Dad asks...

Mhmm... Yes it's spicy.

Are you going to finish that

NO...

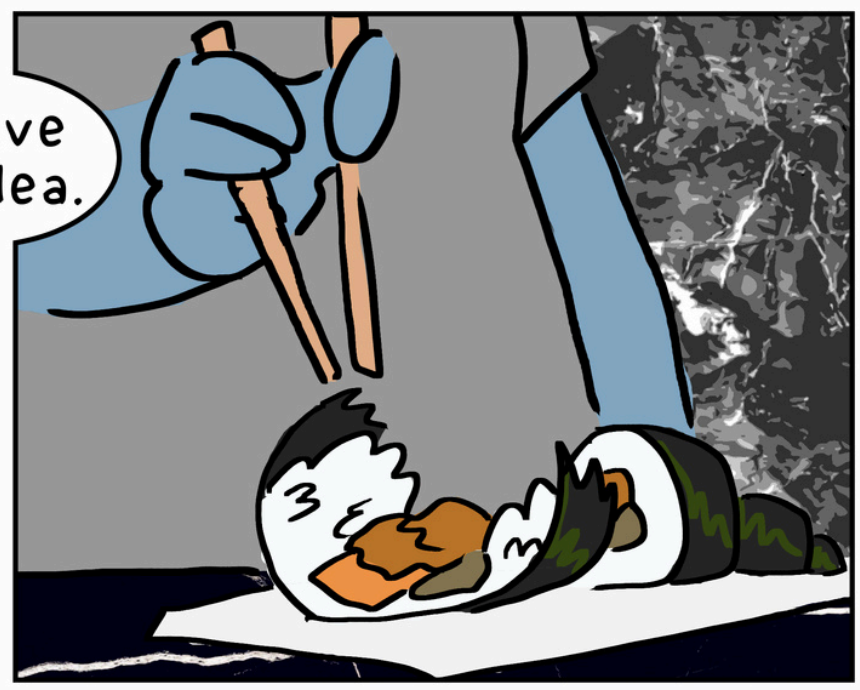
Okay. I'll try it. How hot can it be-

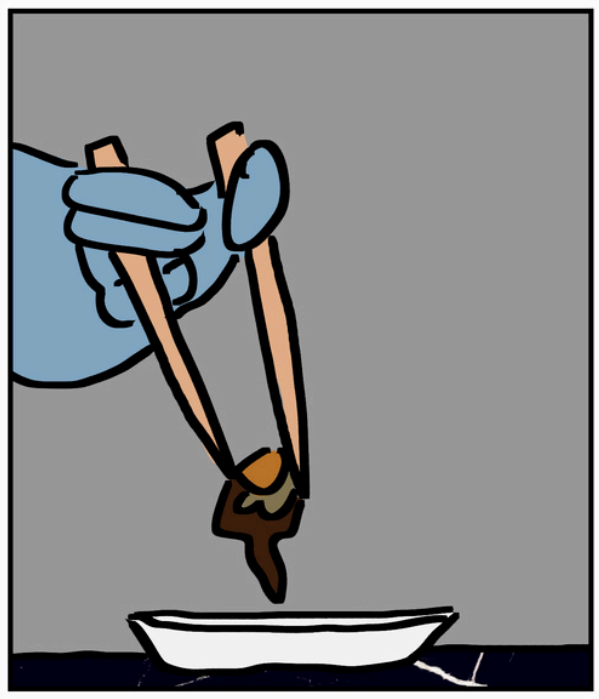
Holy F#ck. That's molten lava.

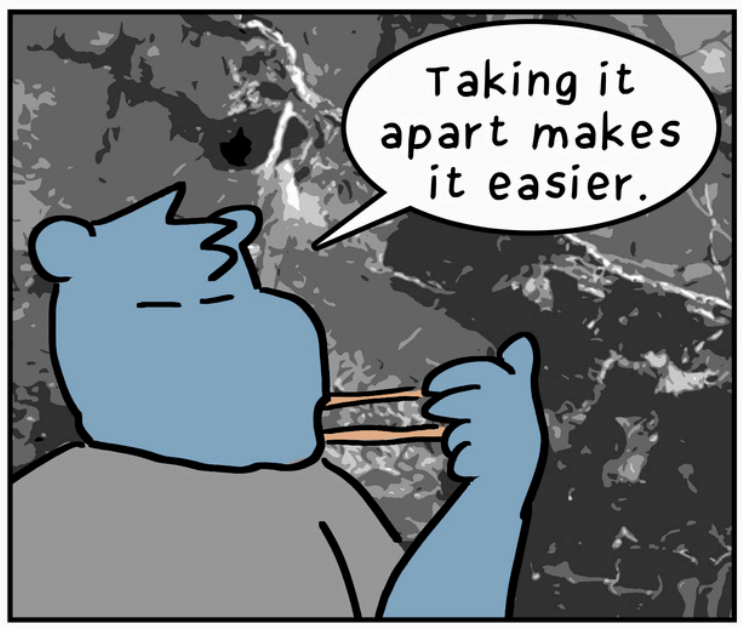
Me and my Dad like to think that in the kitchen the chefs were laughing at us.

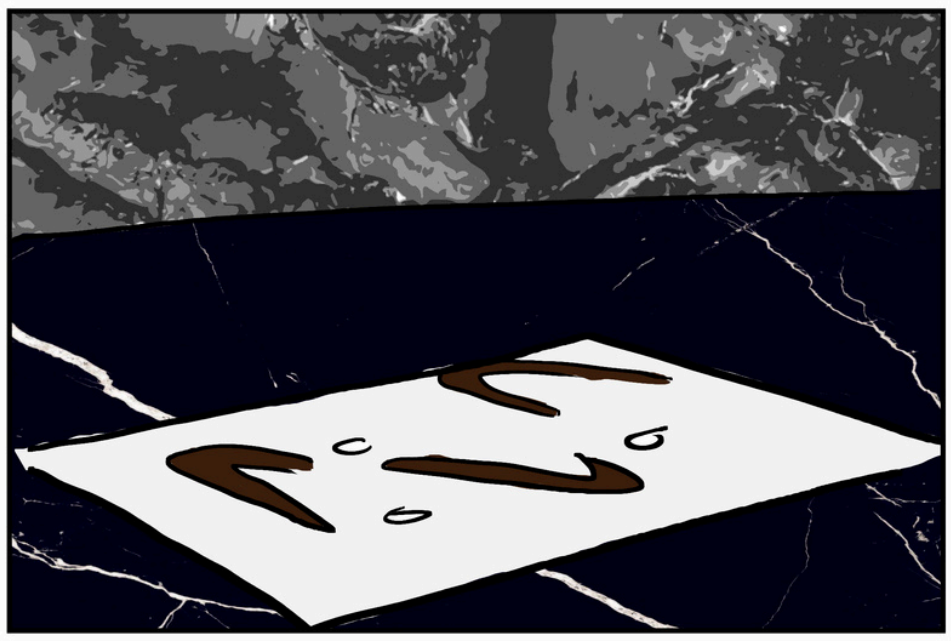
Ha HA

silly Americans.









we finish the Godzilla roll and pay the check. we get back into the car and start laughing. what did we just order? what did we just eat? It was a story to remember. THE END.
